

Dripless Ceiling White, Product #490

Description: Dux's Dripless Ceiling Paint was designed with ease of application in mind. This low odor, water clean- up, flat latex paint has been specifically formulated to greatly reduce roller splatter, which will often occur when using conventional paints on ceilings. This "non-drip" ceiling paint is high hiding and will dry to a desirable uniform flat finish. With its higher light reflectance and bright white finish use Dux's Dripless Ceiling paint on previously painted textured ceilings, and new or previously painted smooth ceilings. Dux's "non-drip" ceiling paint is easy to use and will revitalize and brighten any room in your home.
